Case No.: 2:14-bk-07683-MCW

Chapter 11

MOTION TO CONFIRM SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
 PURSUANT TO
 Fed.R.Bankr.P. 9019

Hearing Date: TBD

19 Grant H. Goodman, as ASSIGNEE of all right, title, and interest in 20 MOTHERSHEAD ('ASSIGNOR') claims, causes of action, and defenses, as a 21 party-in-interest, creditor, and claimant in the above-captioned case (the "Chapter
 22 11 Case"), moves this Court for an Order approving the open court settlement
 23 agreement, authorized and agreed to in open court on July 20, 2015, entered into by 24 the DIP, Aslam Dulara, its counsel, Olga Zlotnik, ASSIGNEE GOODMAN, and 25
 26

1 ASSIGNOR, Karen Mothershead. A hearing is also requested. At the Court's 2 request, pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, 3 expedited approval of the SETTLEMENT (the "Settlement") is requested. The 4 terms of the Settlement are set forth in the true and correct copy of the Settlement
5 Agreement and Mutual Release (the "Settlement Agreement") attached and by this 6 reference incorporated herein. In support of this Motion, GRANT H. GOODMAN,
7
8 represents as follows:
9

10 I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 1. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334.
12
13 Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

14 II. BACKGROUND

15 2. On May 20, 2014 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed its voluntary 16
17 petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

18 3. The Debtor owns and operates a used car sales and repair business (the 19
20 "Business"). The Debtor is continuing to operate the Business as a debtor-in-21 possession pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1107 and 1108. No trustee, examiner or official 22 committee of creditors has been appointed as of the date of this motion.

23 4. As of July 20, 2015, the Debtor is indebted to GOODMAN under the 24
25 Settlement in an amount of $172,000.00.
26

1 5. By July 22, 2015, Mothershead made unilateral demands for material
2 term changes of the open-court agreement. Payments were altered, additional funds 3 were demanded, and 'interest rate' increases were included, along with a host of 4 demands which were never approved, discussed by the parties in settlement, or 5 placed before the court. [Goodman will place under seal all or substantially all email
6 transmissions between the parties, or at least those transmissions which were not 7 blind copied by Ms. Mothershead, and of which Goodman has no knowledge.] Those 8 materials retain a constant theme which seek to repudiate Mothershead's signed,
9 dated, now filed and sworn before this court, and in open court, Assignment
10 Contracts to Goodman, of all right, title, and interest in the proceedings.

14 6. At bottom, Ms. Mothershead has no position in this litigation vis-a-vis
15 the Assignments—as a creditor—as a party-in-interest—or as an administrative 16 priority claimant. Ms. Mothershead has, and had, assigned all interests to Goodman.
17 Ms. Mothershead is not necessary for a just adjudication nor may she be joined under 18 Fed.R.Bankr.P. 7017-7019-7020-7024, those 'rights' having been assigned as well.
19 Ms. Mothershead threatened the adverse attorney, Ms. Zlotnik, by apparently 20 reporting Ms. Zlotnik to the State Bar of Arizona for disclosing to Goodman, as 21 holder of all right, title, and interest in the litigation, that Ms. Mothershead had 22 retained a third and fourth lawyer in the case over the last few months from 23 Arboleda to Harnish, and last week, to Ivy Kushner, 'retained' post-open-court

1 approved settlement. Kushner quit yesterday, as with Harnish and Arboleda before
2 her. The Sprint case, cited to this court in oral argument and cited in the 3 Assignments, requires that ALL right, title, and interest in the matter or matters be 4 assigned by the assignor, leaving nothing for the assignor to debate, as here—other 5 than a post-settlement or trial split of the proceeds, for which the assignee is 6 accountable. This case classically illustrates why the assignor may not reserve for 7 itself a position in the litigation which so multiplies the proceedings as to defeat the 8 assignment itself. The U.S. Supreme Court single voice requirement for litigating, 9 or settling the claim, accords finality to the litigation while barring a multiplicity of 10 suits at odds with the assignment itself.

14 7. Now, counsel for the Debtor has understandably quit given the drama.
15 The Settlement agreed to in open court, even by Mothershead—several times—is 16 valid and enforceable. Mothershead was not allowed a pulpit from which to threaten 17 the parties or their counsel, and obstruct the proceedings. Mothershead was warned
18 numerous times, under the assignment, to refrain from obstructing the settlement 19 which was in everyone's best interest, and which would not require that the 20 proceedings be overturned through Fed.R.Bankr.P. 9024 (Fed.R.Civ.P. 60(b)(4) and 21 60(d)(1)(2)(3), or through 18 U.S.C. § 152(1)(2)(3)(4)(5)(6)(8)), or through 22 Goodman's pretrial statement incorporated here. At this point most attorneys would 23 withdraw and try to minimize the sanctions imposed by the court. Goodman does 24
25
26

1 not have that as an option since he owns the claims and is not acting as a
2 representative on Mothershead's behalf.¹ The court is requested to employ the 3 Assignments to temper Ms. Mothershead's irregular and legally indefensible
4 behavior. The court is requested to entertain an award of not less than $10,000.00
5 against Ms. Mothershead's 70% for needlessly protracting the litigation under 28
6 U.S.C. § 1927, and for Mothershead's recklessly threatening the assignee, and all
7 other parties, including her own past counsel, Arboleda and Harnish, with 'reports'
8 to the State Bar which threats include Debtor's former counsel, Ms. Zlotnik, through 9 the Federal and State analogs of Rule 11, and the Court's inherent authority to 10 restrain and mute such ill-conceived theatrics.

14 8. All parties and interested parties effected had agreed in open court to 15 the material terms of the Settlement of July 20, 2015, agreeing to forego a trial on 16 the merits in exchange for the Settlement as stated on the record. The Settlement 17
18
19
20

21 ¹ Even were Goodman still licensed, the Assignments were made individually to 22 Goodman from individual Mothershead, and not in a representative capacity—there 23 is practically, and ethically, no 'attorney-client' privilege accorded the assignments.
24 Ms. Mothershead was repeatedly instructed on this point many times over the last 25 eighteen months. Apparently Ms. Mothershead waived whatever claims to 26 confidentiality existed by sending and delivering a series of emails to the court (promised for republishing under seal here) and other communications from Assignee-Goodman. Those communications are evidence that the integrity of the assignments will be strictly enforced, at least, by Goodman as the assignment holder.

1 resolves disputes between them in a way that will facilitate the Debtor's Chapter 11
2 Case, and reduce unnecessary costs and delays.

3 9. To that end, the Debtor, its counsel, Goodman as Assignee, and 4 Mothershead as the Assignor, agreed to settle and compromise all issues and claims
5 against each other arising out of, or that could have arisen out of, the Agreement
6 and/or the Chapter 11 Case.
7

8 10. Debtor shall pay a scheduled total of $172,000.00 to Grant H. Goodman
9 on the dates specified in the appended Agreement which will satisfy and settle the 10 obligation of the Debtor under the Agreement. At the Court's direction Debtor shall 11 cut two cashiered funds checks at each remittance, 30% to Goodman, and 70% to 12 Mothershead.
13

14 11. The proposed terms of the Settlement are set forth in the Agreement
15 attached.
16

17 III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

18 A. The Settlement is Fair and in the Best Interests of the Debtor's Estate 19 and Should Be Authorized Pursuant to Rule 9019(a) of the Federal 20 Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. 21

22 The requested relief is authorized by Rule 9019(a) of the Federal Rules of 23 Bankruptcy Procedure. "Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, 24 the debtor, and indenture trustee as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as 25 the court may direct.
26

1 “The bankruptcy court has great latitude in approving compromise
2 agreements.” In re Woodson, 839 F.2d 610, 620 (9th Cir. 1988). The decision to 3 approve a compromise is within a court’s discretion, provided that the result is “fair
4 and equitable.” See In re Woodson, 839 F.2d at 620; In re A&C Properties, 784 F.2d
5 1377, 1381 (9th Cir. 1986).

7 In making this determination, a court must consider the following four factors:

9 (a) The probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if 10 any, to be encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the complexity of 11 the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay 12 necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and 13 a proper deference to their reasonable views . . . In re A&C Properties, 784 F.2d at 138 (quoting In re Flight Transp. Corp. Sec. Litig., 730 F.2d 1128, 1135 (8th Cir. 1984)).

14 Evaluating an open court prior settlement “does not require the bankruptcy 15 judge to hold a full evidentiary hearing or a ‘mini-trial’ before a compromise can be 16 approved.” 10 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 9019.02 at 9019-5 (15th ed. 2002). Were 17 that required, “there would be no point in compromising; the parties might as well 18 go ahead and try the case.” Id. Instead, a court is obliged to “canvass the issues and 19 see whether the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of 20 reasonableness.” Id. Neither Mothershead, Goodman, nor the Debtor or its counsel 21 opposed the settlement terms in open court under direct questioning by this court.
22 Rather, all parties to the Agreement voiced approval and consent to the material
23 terms as published herein, on July 20, 2015.

1 The Agreement, achieves a result that is in the best interest of the Debtor and 2 its estate. The Settlement avoids continuing costs and delay, will enhance the 3 prospects for success in this Chapter 11 Case, reduces the overall administrative 4 costs associated with this case and likely represents the best negotiated outcome
5 possible.
6

7
8 IV. NOTICES

9 The DIP, and its counsel, will provide notice of this Motion pursuant to Rule
10 2002(a)(3) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or as otherwise directed 11 by this Court.
12

13 V. CONCLUSION

14 For the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that this Court enter an 15 order approving the Open-Court Settlement of July 20, 2015, as it is in the best 16 interests of the Debtor and its estate.

1 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND MUTUAL RELEASE

2 I. PARTIES

3 The parties to this Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release (the "Agreement") are as 4 follows:

5 Karen Mothershead ("Mothershead");

6 Grant Goodman, as an assignee of Mothershead ("Goodman"); and 7 Dulara Automotive Group, LLC dba Big Bell Road Auto Superstore ("DAG").

8 Mothershead, Goodman, and DAG are collectively referred to hereinafter as the "Settling 9 Parties." The Agreement is effective on the date that it is executed by the Settling Parties.

10 II. RECITALS

11 A. On or about May 20, 2014, DAG filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 12 11, Title 11 United States Code in the District of Arizona Case No. 2:14-bk-07683-MCW (the 13 "Bankruptcy Case").

14 B. On or about November 5, 2014, Mothershead and DAG entered into that certain 15 Partnership Agreement ("Partnership Agreement"), where Mothershead invested $200,000 to 16 purchase vehicles for sale.

17 C. As of July 20, 2015, DAG is indebted to assignee, under the Partnership Agreement.

18 D. Subject to the conditions, covenants, and obligations contained herein, the Settling 19 Parties now wish to settle and compromise all issues and claims against each other arising out of 20 or that could have arisen out of the Partnership Agreement and/or Bankruptcy Case.

1 III. COVENANTS

2 Based upon the foregoing and following representations, and in consideration of the 3 covenants set forth in the Agreement, and for other valuable consideration, the Settling Parties
4 agree as follows:

5 Incorporation of Recitals. The above and foregoing recitals are incorporated herein and 6 made a part of this Agreement. The Settling Parties represent that the foregoing recitals are true
7 and correct.

8 Court Approval. Upon the execution of this Agreement, DAG shall use its best efforts to 9 promptly seek and obtain Court Approval of this Agreement.
10

11 Settlement.

12 Without any admission as to liability, DAG will pay Goodman the total amount of 13 $172,000.00 ("Settlement Amount") as follows: (i) $25,000 upon signature or court enforcement
14 order; (ii) $25,000 on or before August 20, 2015; (iii) $80,000 on or before December 15, 2015;
15 (iv) $20,000 on or before February 15, 2016, and (v) $22,000 on or before April 15, 2016. All
16 payments shall be remitted to "Grant H. Goodman" in cashiered funds, at the Zlotnik Law Office,
17 due by 2:00 p.m. on the described due dates. If Court approved, two cashiered fund amounts, 30%
18 to Goodman and 70% to Mothershead in accordance with the Assignments, will be paid in 19 satisfaction of the debt at each remittance, minus any sanctions, cost and expense awarded in favor
20 of Assignee Goodman before the first scheduled payment. These amounts will be deducted from 21 Ms. Mothershead's 70% until paid in full.
22

23 On the date of signature or court enforcement order, Mothershead shall deliver to DAG a 24 2007 black Chrysler 300.
25
26

1 Failure to pay when due shall constitute a default with all unpaid sums then due accelerated
2 for payment to the default date. A default shall trigger all collection and damage remedies in both
3 State and Federal forums. The settlement amounts, paid or unpaid, shall not be discharged, 4 dismissed, impaired, or compromised through bankruptcy. In the event of default, all remedies in 5 State or Federal forums are preserved including, but not limited to contract damages, punitive or 6 exemplary damages, provisional remedies including attachment and garnishment, treble damages
7 under Federal RICO 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961-1968, et seq., damage under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981-1983-8 1985, et seq., damage for tortious interference with expectancy, damage related to bad faith and 9 fraudulent inducement, damage related to fraudulent conduct, and damage for conversion along 10 with remedies for a constructive trust. And any obstruction of the settlement by the Assignor shall 11 form the basis for a similar action or cause of action against the Assignor in protection of the 12 property interests accorded the Assignee. The Assignment shall also be deemed a protectable
13 property interest under U.S. Supreme Court precedent.
14

15 Release and Discharge.
16

17 In consideration of the information set forth above and the Settling Parties' mutual
18 covenants and promises, the Settling Parties agree as follows:

19 Except for the performance of the obligations contained in this Agreement, Mothershead, 20 in accordance with the Assignments, and any heirs, agents, and assigns forever release and 21 covenant not to sue DAG, and/or any of its past, present, and future, principals, shareholders,
22 investors, members, officers, agents, brokers, employees, employers, trustees, representatives, 23 attorneys, beneficiaries, servants, directors, partners, independent contractors, parent and 24 subsidiary corporations, related entities, affiliate corporations or companies, executors, successors, 25 predecessors-in-interest, administrators, and assigns, and all persons or entities claiming by,
26

1 through, or under it, on any and all claims, actions, causes of action, suits, debts, sums of money,
2 losses, interests, costs, receivables, expenses, sums of money, accounts, covenants, contracts,
3 agreements, representations, warranties, damages, injuries, liabilities and demands whatsoever, in 4 law, equity, arbitration, administrative proceeding or otherwise, whether known or unknown,
5 direct or indirect, foreseen or unforeseen, contingent or fixed, liquidated or unliquidated, that 6 Mothershead had, now has, or may claim to have had as of the date of execution of this Agreement,
7 including, but not limited to, all claims and complaints arising out of or in any way related to the 8 facts and circumstances in the Partnership Agreement and/or Bankruptcy Case. The foregoing 9 release and covenant does not include any legal action necessary to enforce or protect the rights
10 and duties created by this Agreement.

12 Except for the performance of the obligations contained in this Agreement, Goodman and 13 any heirs, agents, and assigns forever release and covenant not to sue DAG, and/or any of its past,
14 present, and future, principals, shareholders, investors, members, officers, agents, brokers,
15 employees, employers, trustees, representatives, attorneys, beneficiaries, servants, directors,
16 partners, independent contractors, parent and subsidiary corporations, related entities, affiliate 17 corporations or companies, executors, successors, predecessors-in-interest, administrators, and 18 assigns, and all persons or entities claiming by, through, or under it, on any or all claims, actions,
19 causes of action, suits, debts, sums of money, losses, interests, costs, receivables, expenses, sums
20 of money, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements, representations, warranties, damages,
21 injuries, liabilities and demands whatsoever, in law, equity, arbitration, administrative proceeding 22 or otherwise, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, foreseen or unforeseen, contingent or 23 fixed, liquidated or unliquidated, that Goodman had, now has, or may claim to have had as of the 24 date of execution of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, all claims and complaints arising 25
26

1 out of or in any way related to the facts and circumstances in the Partnership Agreement and/or 2 Bankruptcy Case. The foregoing release and covenant does not include any legal action necessary
3 to enforce or protect the rights and duties created by this Agreement.

4 Except for the performance of the obligations contained in this Agreement, DAG forever
5 releases and covenants not to sue Mothershead, Goodman, and/or any of their past, present, and 6 future, agents, brokers, employees, employers, representatives, attorneys, beneficiaries, servants,
7 partners, independent contractors, related entities, affiliate corporations or companies, executors,
8 successors, predecessors-in-interest, administrators, and assigns, and all persons or entities
9 claiming by, through, or under them, on any or all claims, actions, causes of action, suits, debts,
10 sums of money, losses, interests, costs, receivables, expenses, sums of money, accounts, 11 covenants, contracts, agreements, representations, warranties, damages, injuries, liabilities and 12 demands whatsoever, in law, equity, arbitration, administrative proceeding or otherwise, whether 13 known or unknown, direct or indirect, foreseen or unforeseen, contingent or fixed, liquidated or 14 unliquidated, that DAG had, now has, or may claim to have had as of the date of execution of this 15 Agreement including, but not limited to, all claims and complaints arising out of or in any way
16 related to the facts and circumstances in the Partnership Agreement and/or Bankruptcy Case. The 17 foregoing release and covenant does not include any legal action necessary to enforce or protect 18 the rights and duties created by this Agreement.

19 The Settling Parties shall not defame or disparage, individually, or the business, services,
20 officers, employees or representatives of Mothershead, Goodman, or DAG, or otherwise do
21 anything to detract from or reflect adversely upon their reputation.

22 The Settling Parties acknowledge that they have entered into this Agreement in reliance on 23 their own independent investigations and analysis of the facts and the law governing these actions
24
25
26

1 and the claims asserted in them, and that no representations, warranties, or promises of any kind
2 have been made, directly or indirectly, to induce any of them to execute this Agreement, other than 3 those that are expressly set forth in this Agreement.

4 Integration and Understanding.

5 This Agreement contains the entire understanding between the Settling Parties with respect
6 to the subject matter of the Agreement, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements 7 and understandings, inducements or conditions, express or implied, oral or written, except as 8 otherwise contained in the Agreement. The express terms of the Agreement control and supersede
9 any course of performance inconsistent with any of the terms hereof. This Agreement may not be 10 modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing. If any provision of this Agreement, 11 or the application thereof, is held invalid, any such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or 12 applications of this Agreement.
13

14 Advice of Counsel.

15 The Settling Parties further acknowledge that each of them and counsel of their choosing 16 have had an opportunity to review the Agreement, that the terms of the Agreement have been 17 completely read by them and that they have had the opportunity to have the terms explained to 18 them, that the terms are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by them, and that the Agreement
19 will not be construed against any party merely because such party prepared it. This Agreement
20 shall be construed without regard to the drafter of the Agreement and shall be construed as though 21 the undersigned hereto participated equally in the drafting of the Agreement.
22

23 Compromise.

24 The Settling Parties understand and agree that the provisions set forth in the Agreement for 25 consideration, release, and discharge are not to be construed as admissions of liability on the part 26

1 of any party to the Agreement, all liability being expressly denied, but such provisions are made
2 solely in compromise and settlement.

3 Binding Nature of Agreement.

4 This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Settling Parties and 5 their respective agents, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, successors, representatives,
6 heirs, and assigns.

7 Warranty of Capacity to Sign.

8 Each person executing the Agreement hereby represents and warrants that he or she is duly
9 authorized either as Assignee, Assignor, or as a representative of the party for which he or she acts 10 and is fully and legally empowered to execute and deliver this document on behalf of the party for 11 which he or she acts.
12

13 Notices.

14 All notices required to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and either served 15 personally or by U.S. Mail, postage prepaid, certified return receipt requested, and addressed to 16 the Settling Parties as follows or to such other email address as specified in written notice provided

11 The Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be 12 deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which 13 shall together constitute one and the same instrument. The Settling Parties agree that, upon 14 execution, the counterparts of the Agreement may be delivered by facsimile or electronically by 15 email, with the original counterpart to be promptly delivered.

16 Enforcement of Agreement.

17 If any action shall be brought to recover any amount under the Agreement before or on 18 account of any default or breach of, or to enforce any of the obligations, terms, covenants or 19 conditions of the Agreement, the prevailing party or parties shall be entitled to recover from the 20 other parties all of their costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. The Assignee shall recover all costs, 21 expense, damage under the prior terms [See, C-(1)(2)(3)], expert and consulting fees, expense of 22 suit, sanctions, research and chargeable time and effort, all recoverable Pro se under the 23 Assignment Agreements. To the extent Assignee must set forth an hourly basis for damage, 24 sanction, or expense analysis, Goodman is entitled to $550.00 an hour.
